The names of W. H. Hate and Carous Noyes were then placed before the names as candidates for the nonlineton for any judge. There ensued a period of great excitationant and various persons in different communication and various persons in different cifement and various persons in different parts of the half were endeavoring to gain the attention of the challeman, the crowd rushing on the platform and sarrounds the chairman when some one had the presence of mind to call for a vote by ballot. The suggestion was at once adopted. Charles Coty, Hugh Daly and E. C. Moore were appointed tellers and the ballot resulted as follows:

Carolus Noves. Mr. Hare's majority 215. A city committee was then appointed as follows: First ward, Henry McCarty: Second ward, W. J. Langshore: third ward, Thomas W. Cook: Fourth ward, George Babcock: Fifth ward, E. M. Satton. The city committee were authorized to fill all vacancies in that body and the caucus adjourned.

McKillip was the only one presented for the office of alderman and he was unani-mously elected as a candidate. The chair appointed E. H. Trick, Newell Lawrence and John Roby as a committee to nomi-nate candidates for ward officers. They proposed the following who were elected: For ward committee, John Roby, W. H. Drew, Napoleon Lowrey for inspectors of election, James Lang, John Bacon, Win. J. Langshore; for cierk, J. E. Lang.

Death of John H. Baird.

Mr. John H. Baird, whose illness has been chronicled in these colums, died at the Carnay hospital in Boston last Fri day morning of dropsy of the heart. The community suffers a serious loss in Mr. Baird's death. He was a remarkably bright, capable, efficient and steady man, and was in the employ of Mr. Henry J. He was told that his trouble was dropsy of the heart, and that there was very little hope of his ultimate recovery. Returning to Burlington, Mr. Baird arranged all his business affairs, and then went back to the Carnay hospital in Boston, where he died. He leaves a wife and two sisters, residing in Burlington, and several brothers. His wife and sisters were with him at the time of his death. He will be sincerely mourned by many friends.

A Word to Workers.

If your avocations are mentally or physically laborious, if they subject you to exposure in inclement weather, if they confine you to the desk, and are of a nature to involve wear and tear of brain, and nervous strain. you may occasionally require some renovat-ing tonic. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the article for you, it stimulates the failing ener-gies, invigorates the body and cheers the mind. It enables the system to thrown off the debilitating effects of undue fatigue, gives renewed tating effects of undue fatigue, gives renewed vigor to the organs of digestion, arouses the liver when inactive, which it very often is with people whose pursuits are sedentary, renews the jaded appetite, and encourages healthful repose. Its ingredients are safe, and its credentials, which consist in the hearty endorsement of persons of every class of secrety are most convincing. Admirably is it adapted to the medical wants of workers.
